When did you open your business in Solon?

2013

Why did you choose to locate in Solon?

Solon is the perfect environment for a small business to flourish, especially one based around health and wellness. We are extremely thankful to be a part of such a tight-knit community and privileged to provide treatment to the local people. It is an honor to be a part of a diverse population that holds their overall wellbeing as such a priority.

What services do you provide?

All chiropractic physicians at NEO Spine and Sport specialize in treating disorders of the musculoskeletal system. This can range from pinched nerves to planar fasciitis, and everything in between. All the physicians are certified in Active Release Techniques (ART) and dry needling. From elite athletes to normal everyday people, NEO Spine and Sport is where everyone is treated like a pro.

What makes your business unique from others?

NEO Spine and Sport offers a unique treatment format that incorporates individualized hands-on treatment with every single patient. We do not just adjust patients; we help to correct the underlying cause of the problem to ensure long-term wellness.

What Else Should Residents Know:

Anyone suffering from any sort of pain, headache, or just looking to increase general wellness can call and set up an appointment! 440-600-2209
